No. F4(1)(3)/NP/SEC/05/904 Dated : 23.01.2026

To,

All District Election Officers (Muicipality)
(Collectors) Rajasthan.

Sub : Appointment of sitting ministers as election agents and counting agents in municipal elections.

Sir,

There may be a case, when a candidate appoints a sitting Minister as his Election Agent or Counting Agent to facilitate his electoral activities.

In this regard, it is clarified that security personnel are not allowed to enter the counting hall or the polling booths, except in the situation provided for in the relevant rules.

Minister of a government or such person who has been provided security cover (PSO) after assessing the threat perceptions at the appropriate level in the government, it is clarified that such persons (Ministers or such persons) are not allowed to be appointed as election agents or counting agents at all. This may be brought to the notice of all returning officers of the municipalities.
